The Helena

VOL. 30--NO. 125.

HELENA, MONTANA TERRITORY, TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 30, 1889.

FIVE CENTS

HARRIS
CLOTHIER

A Helena House that carries as large a Clothing Stock as any house west of Chicago.

That handles the productions of the very finest manufacturers of the country.

That marks all goods in plain figures, and the only house in the city that is.

STRICTLY ONE PRICE.

"You pays your money and you takes your choice."

There are hats and then again there are HATS--and many hats that wear well--and there are hats that wear well and look well. The only hat we know that combines durability and elegance is the "Miller." Have you ever had one? Then don't wait a minute, but go and get one while the stock is large because if you wait you are liable to come up "wanting." We are sole agents for those celebrated manufacturers, "Dickerson & Brown," whose productions for the last twenty years have been considered "au fait" by those who are supposed to be the "Arbiters of Fashion."

Don't fail to get a Miller Hat. Then again we are well fixed in Spring Wear. Did you examine our line of clothing, Nobby Suits, Stylish Cut-aways and Satey Prince Alberts (there's going to be lots of the latter worn this year.)

One of the greatest attractions ever seen in a clothing house is a stylish blue sack suit, low rolled collar, silk faced. We are the only house in Montana that shows this style very handsome. Only, $25.

Another attraction is a Spring Overcoat, silk lined with together with the sleeve linings are the same as the goods, very stylish, made by Benjamin (not Harris), of New York. We defy a tailor to match it for $80. You can have it for half the money. We have them at all prices as low as $7.50.

It makes our head ache when we look at our stock. It is too large. Just think so many goods in such a small room as ours.

We have to get rid of some of these quicker than the usual course of trade so we have put the knife into a number of lots and the very life blood of profits flow from our sales. Just think, a nice Nobby suit any of four different styles all wool and only a ten dollar bill puts one of them on your back.

200 doz. ties just arrived--100 doz. from Wilson Bros. of Chicago--you know them--and 100 doz. from Howell of Philadelphia, strangers to this trade, but dandy tie makers. Come and look at the goods they make and if you don't buy a tie or two you can take.

THE FIRST DAY.

Many Distinguished Men Join in the Ceremonies Attending the Centennial Celebration.

President Harrison's Noteworthy Journey from the National Capital to New York City.

Following in the Footsteps of Washington--Grand Naval Parade--The President's Reception.

WASHINGTON, April 29.--About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a magnificent appointed train of ten cars pulled up at the siding at Sixth street, just outside the Pennsylvania station. It was the train to bear the president and party to New York to attend the Centennial celebration. The cars are the most gorgeous and best appointed ever run in America, or in the world. They are lighted by electricity, heated by steam, and fitted up with every appliance luxury could devise. Lieut. Mason and Mrs. Mason were first to arrive. Justice Blatchford, Justice Field and Chief Justice Fuller came down about 10 o'clock. It was twenty minutes to 11 when the president and party passed through the gates. Chief Justice Fuller and Justice Blatchford, Field and Strong, Secretary Windom and Col. Barr, of the war department, members of the inaugural reception committee, Private Secretary Harford, Col. Wadsworth, Lieut. Johnson, Lieut. Johnson and Mr. A. J. Harford, the president and his immediate family and guests entered the party.

A breakfast party, consisting of the president, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. McKee, and Chief Justice and Mrs. Fuller, was driven to the residence of Governor Green, the rest of the party breakfasting on the train. The governor's house and grounds were elaborately decorated and the streets in the vicinity were packed with people, who greeted the presidential party with shouts of cheer. At the breakfast were President and Mrs. Harrison, Governor and Mrs. Green, Justice and Mrs. Field, Justice and Mrs. McKee, and Mr. and Mrs. Rusk. After breakfast a reception of prominent citizens was held, and in the meantime a procession of the state and city officials, militia, G. A. R., and other societies was forming. The president and party, after reviewing a portion of the procession, moved, as near as they could, over the route followed by Washington a century ago, passing the building house, which was appropriately decorated.

The party was re-united at the boat house where a ten o'clock dinner was served. Owing to the low water the Despatch had been forced to anchor at the pier. The president walked to the boat followed by Vice President Morton and Capt. Eiben. They took their seats and the band played the national anthem. The president and party were then taken to the boat by a launch. The launch was a small boat, and the president and party were taken to the boat by a launch. At five minutes before 10 o'clock the president returned to his carriage and with the vice president and Gov. Hill, were driven to the boat. CUT THE FLAG DOWN.

Militiamen Who Objected to an Englishman's Decorations.

NEW YORK, April 29.--A number of militia men from Pittsburgh, who were sight-seeing this morning, were attracted to the flag on the roof of the building, a large British flag floating from the window above American flags of smaller dimensions. "Let's take it down or make them do it," said one. They then commenced to cut the flag.

THE GRAND BALL.

Money Was Not Spared and the Result Was a Gorgeous and Memorable Spectacle.

The President Takes Part in the Dance Which Proves a Most Serious Affair.

Mrs. Morton the Most Richly Dressed Woman on the Floor--A Supper For an Army.

NEW YORK, April 29.--To many of those who are thronging New York in the days of the celebration the greatest feature of all is the grand centennial ball, which took place at the Metropolitan opera house to-night. All that money could do to carry out the immense scheme that was to give a night of pleasure to six thousand people, was done. Carriages began to roll up to the Broadway entrance soon after 8 o'clock. The outer walls of the auditorium and the sides of the double staircases formed three sides of the garden, and trellised vines and flowering plants added to the natural effect, while fruit trees set about artistically challenged one to dispute the fact that one had just come in from outdoors. There were apple trees in blossom and pear trees in bud, peach trees with a strong suggestion of fruitfulness, and cherry trees with every evidence of ripeness. The decorations included guineas and silver, and the most beautiful of flowers. Wherever you might choose to go, in the auditorium, on the balcony, or on the stairs, there was a wealth of decoration, such as never before has been attempted in New York. Little knots of picturesque trimmings of red, white and blue were so arranged that the effect of a party of six thousand people was not only enhanced, but the general effect, but the costumes themselves were benefited thereby. The fringed and tasseled hats, the dresses with red and blue and white, the wreaths and flowers, while great pieces of flowers were placed on the walls of the boxes. On the stage arose a magnificent architectural mass of flowers and plants, and the whole effect was to be seen from the general effect, but the costumes themselves were benefited thereby.

INDIANS' VICTIMS.

An Employe of a Cattle Company Murdered and Then Roasted on a Stove.

Twelve of the Gang Which Has Terrorized Pennsylvania Farmers Lodged in Jail.

A Grudge Growing Out of the Switchmen's Strike Ends in a Murder--An Old Lady's Fate.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.--A special to the Examiner from Denning, N. M., says: A. E. Head has received the following telegram from Sheriff Whitehall, at San Simon, Lower California: "SAN SIMON, April 29.--W. J. Munchausen and Cook, two miners, came to the San Simon Cattle company's headquarters last night and shot Frank Cady was killed by Indians at Deer Creek. Cady was buried Friday. He was shot through both legs and then put on a stove and roasted. As near as could be ascertained there were forty Indians." Cady had charge of the San Simon Cattle company's ranch at Deer Creek, six miles from the Mexican line and about fifteen miles from Long Beach, in the Animas valley.

Desperadoes in Jail. PITTSBURGH, April 29.--A portion of the gang of desperadoes who have been robbing and committing murderous assaults upon farmers in the vicinity of McMillan, Fayette county, have been captured at last. Twelve of them were brought to Somerset to-day by ex-Sheriff Kyle and were placed in jail.

The Result of an Old Grudge. CHICAGO, April 29.--James W. Kelly, yardmaster of the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City road, shot and mortally wounded Harry McMillan to-night. McMillan had attacked Kelly with a knife. There was an old grudge between the men growing out of the switchmen's strike some time ago, resulting in McMillan and others being thrown out of employment.

Burned to Death. DAYTON, O., April 29.--Mrs. Susan Binkley, aged 75, living with her daughter, Mrs. James Lantz, who is in Xenia, was burned to death this morning, her clothes catching fire from a lamp. There was an old grudge between the men growing out of the switchmen's strike some time ago, resulting in McMillan and others being thrown out of employment.

TERRITORIAL POLITICS. The Livingston Election--Delicacies to the Constitutional Convention. LIVINGSTON, April 29.--[Special to the Independent].--At the city election held here to-day the straight city ticket won the day in every ward. The principal fight was for police magistrate, city marshal and aldermen for the first and second wards. The combine of business men to defeat J. W. Nelson, a saloon man, for alderman in the second ward, took defeat gracefully and acknowledged a fair fight. The following were elected: Mayor, A. W. Miller; treasurer, J. E. Swindlow; city clerk, and attorney, M. D. Kelly; police magistrate, S. Hooford; marshal, George T. Young; aldermen: first ward, D. G. Willard and Jas. Carroll; second ward, J. W. Nelson and W. C. Sheldre; third ward, S. M. Nye and Frank White.

Cooper and Luce. BOZEMAN, April 29.--[Special to the Independent].--At the democratic convention here Walter Cooper and Judge L. L. Luce were declared the unanimous choice for delegates to the constitutional convention. Considerable interest was taken in the convention, a majority of the county delegates being present.

Elkhorn Delegates. ELKHORN, April 29.--[Special to the Independent].--Pursuant to a call issued by the chairman of the democratic county central committee, the democrats of Elkhorn assembled in the school house Saturday evening to elect delegates to the county convention to be held in Boulder May 1. W. E. Deane, chairman, and Judge L. L. Luce, secretary. The following were elected as delegates: Alex. Gillian, W. E. Deane, F. B. Higdon, S. L. Hobden, Mike Murphy, R. S. Kelly, Edward O'Donnell and D. C. Lettler. Con. Leary, J. J. Slater and A. J. Locker were elected as proxies. The delegation goes uninstructed.

Boulder Delegates. BOULDER, April 29.--[Special to the Independent].--At the democratic county convention held here to-day the following delegates to the district convention: W. D. Northrop, D. G. Warner, W. Brennan, F. McGowan, Lee Taylor, J. J. McKay, W. B. Gaffney, R. W. F. Berendes. The delegates to the republican convention were as follows: Geo. F. Cowan, A. H. Foster, Fred Leighton, Ed. Groesbeck, W. H. Hoopes, Henry Nelson.

Basin Delegates. BASIN, April 29.--At a public meeting held here to-day the following were chosen delegates to attend the democratic district convention to be held here May 1. T. Hopkins, Jos. B. Brien, W. R. Gibbons. Articles of incorporation for the North Montana Fair association with Paris Gibson, Robert Vaughn, Timothy E. Collins, Ira Myers, Charles Wagner, J. H. McKnight, Julius Horst, John Reimer and McNeely as incorporators. The capital stock is $20,000, divided into 800 shares at $25 each. Great Falls is the place where the fair is to be located and the object of the company is to get premiums for agricultural, mineral, mechanical and stock exhibitions and prizes for speed in horse racing. Certified copy of the Northwestern Guaranty and Loan company of Minnesota, with a capital stock of $200,000, of which the amount $200,000 is paid in. The indebtedness of the company at one time is not to exceed $50,000. The principal place of business is Minneapolis, with Louis F. Menager, E. S. Innes, S. F. Channell, B. S. Bull and J. E. Miner as directors.

A Splendid Showing. There is no increase of crime in Lewis and Clark county, judging by the records of the district court, now in session. During the past six months there have been no serious offenses against the law committed. There were indictments for felony, but they were of a light character. John Doe, charged with burglary and larceny, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, committed the offense of breaking into a chicken coop in the night time. There was one forgery case, but the offense was simply forging an order. There were no indictments for murder, manslaughter or rape, and in short, the county makes a good showing for order and morality. Judge Blake is highly pleased.
